All the concerned personnel should be reminded that the registration however, is on a first-come, first-served basis. Per the PCW, there is no limit on the number of participants per agency/institution. Registration link will open before the webinar schedule and will automatically close once the number of registered participants reaches 1000.

In the event that an officer's registration in the scheduled webinar is unsuccessful due to uncontrollable factors, the GFPS should find ways for the officer to participate through other platforms, such as livestreaming via PCW social media platforms. The GFPS should also remind and monitor the registration and participation of all the aforementioned officers.

The AFD is directed to provide administrative and logistical support, including provision of shuttle services to employees who will participate in the activity, purchase, and distribute food, and provide materials and supplies needed. AFD shall prepare the corresponding cash advance for this purpose.
